Report of Trustees of the New Boston Cemetery.

There is a beautiful little poem so applicable to our own cemetery that we quote the two first lines:

"Across the valley, on the side of the hill,

Lieth a village, quiet and still."

To this quiet and beautiful spot, have been borne the loved ones of all ages, and members of nearly every family in town. The infant in all its purity, the youth with hope and ambition of youth, the dear mother, the strong father who battled so bravely for the comfort of their living family, and the bright light of the lover, blasted in its brightness, every phase of earthly life gathered here by the loving Father, "Who doeth all things well," so peaceful, so quiet, the sacred ground has closed them from earthly sight. It is well we cherish this place and with reverent, willing spirit seek to make its outwards adornment a fitting memorial to those gone from sight, knowing that loved ones will, with breaking hearts, in turn bear our forms to this quiet, peaceful place, for our earthly resting place. Is it any wonder all are interested, that all we can do we will do, to make this spot neat and sightly to those who love to linger there and read the inscriptions that bring to memory each one who was once so near and dear.

The Trustees have tried to do their duty by the grounds as we have carefully looked them over. Indeed, we have questioned somewhat on the work of last summer, whether we ought to assume the expense necessary to put the wall by the road above the hearse house, into lasting, suitable and sightly repair. With the upper gate broken and requiring new, we decided to purchase new wire fence gates, along the roadside, three for carriage way and two small gates, and they were purchased and set at time of the repair of the wall. The Board appointed R. W. McLane and E. A. Edwards committee to see that wall was suitably repaired. They found it was going to be a large expense to remove the old wall and replace it with any kind of a fence, and consulting carefully with Mr. Chas. Bailey of Suncook, gave him the job of relaying the old wall in cement and capping with split quarry stone, making a wall eight inches higher and conforming to roadway better than the original. Though it had drawn very heavily on our general fund, leaving barely enough at interest to meet absolute necessary expense for care of the cemetery, we were so satisfied and pleased that we had a substantial and pleasing enclosure, that the Board unanimously ratified the action taken and we believe, as the citizens drive by, they too will be pleased and sanction our action. We are glad the Selectmen took advantage of Mr Bailey's presence to have some needed cementing done at the town tomb. The funds to apply to care of lots left by bequests we left intact and expense was met by using general funds accumulated from sale of lots, and we can look for only a small and slow increase in that way hereafter. We can see where considerable work is desirable on the Southwest portion of the cemetery and we hope the town will feel inclined to reimburse our general fund, that the Board and future one, will not be cramped in desirable measures that will surely come to their attention. As a board, we were especially touched by the decease of B. T. Hills, who had served on the Trustees, a broad and efficient member till the calamity that laid him aside from activity and from outdoor service, but whose interest in the cemetery always continuel. The Supt., Mr. Bert Leach, made a good, reliable man, and he took pains to see the cemetery neatly cared for. Any extra labor for lot owners was promptly attended to. Trusting we shall, as long as we are connected with the board, be quick to perceive and prompt to act for the best interest of the cemetery and adding herewith the usual yearly report, we are,

Your obedient servants,

REPORT OF TRUSTEES

The success of a public library is measured and its usefulness marked by the number of users of the library or, in other words, by its circulation. The Trustees are glad to state that the library has increased its circulation over one hundred books a week during the past year.

Many new books have been purchased; several have been rebound; others have been replaced with new copies, and some have been donated.

The library possesses a set of the New International Encyclopaedia and to keep this set up to date the Year Book of the Encyclopaedia has been purchased. This Year Book greatly increases the value and usefulness of the collection.

In the selection of new books endeavor has been made to cover varied wants. "Books of the day" have been added and a few practical books (on subject of automobile running and manufacture etc.,) installed. Especial attempt has been made to procure suitable books for young people.

Number of New Books	82
Number of Books Repaired	14
Number of Books Replaced	11
Number of Books Donated	10

This makes an addition to the library of ninety-two books during the year.

Cooperation is asked from all users of the library in one essential matter—the care of the books. All the townspeople are proud of their library and the only way to keep up the standard is to keep the books in as neat and clean a condition as possible. Many of the books have been ill used and we hope that the coming year may see a marked improvement in the care of the books by the readers.

The Trustees take this opportunity to express their thanks to the J. R. Whipple Co., for furnishing light and heat for the library during the past year. All must appreciate the saving which this generosity permits.

We are grateful to Mrs. Marion E. Martin, Mrs. F. A. D. Atwood, Mrs. Frances M. Lang and Mr. Charles F. Marden for their gifts of books.

A word of appreciation is certainly in place for the faithful attention to duties and the unfailing courtesy of our Librarian, Miss Shearer; to Mrs. Bennett for the excellent care of the room.

We hope that the usefulness of the library may be even greater during the coming year and that its sphere may be enlarged.

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTOPHER H. COLEMAN

School Board of New Boston.

Report of School Board.

To the selectmen of New Boston N. H. and the Inhabitants of the School District:

In submitting our report for the year 1914-1915 we find the results about the same year after year.

We have maintained the past year nine schools of 29 weeks each, besides the High School. Our schools are like a perpetual machine; as one class goes out another comes in to take its place. When we have a bright, ambitious and industrious set of pupils our schools are all that could reasonably be expected; but when we have a class of pupils without industry or ambition, it is almost impossible to succeed.

The success of our schools depends, first, upon the intellectual ability and disposition of the children. Second, upon the home encouragement and influence. Third, upon good teachers, good text books and reference books. When we have these abilities and influences all working together, we will have ideal schools that will turn out noble, well educated girls and boys.

We believe that most of our boys and girls get through school too young to thoroughly master the many different subjects with credit.

Don't be afraid of our boys and girls spending a year or two longer in school; the extra knowledge gained will be a source of satisfaction in after years.

If your children do not receive passing marks let them take the work over. Be sure that every child thoroughly masters a subject before it leaves it; then the advance subjects will be more easily mastered.

Statutory Requirements.

We report the following amounts as necessary for the ensuing year, viz:—

For text books	200 00
Flags and Appurtenances	20 00
Supplies	150 00
